Ty England

The Real Deal

A veteran of the Garth Brooks rise to prominence, Ty England honed his craft as Garth's right hand man in the white-hot intensity of endless "sold out" tours. Ty grew to be a skilled entertainer capable of playing to every person in any crowd; enticing them with a heartfelt sincerity and mesmerizing energy.

As an entertainer, he entwines himself with the crowd and leaves them feeling as though they were a part of the performance. He is committed to musical diversity and it shows. His performances are like roller coaster rides complete with soaring toe-tappers, plunging ballads and everything in between.

Ty has released 4 albums to date with notable successes including "Should've Asked Her Faster", "Redneck Son", "Smoke in Her Eyes", "All Of The Above", "Irresistible You", "Drove Her To Dallas", "I'd Rather Have Nothin'", "Redneck Anthem", "The Perfect Girl", "Texans Hold'em" and "Love Is Stronger".

Ty's songs have become favorites to many country music fans. He has achieved 8 top 40 hits to date including "Should've Asked Her Faster"; still a hotly requested top 3 hit. More recently his self-penned "Texans Hold'em" remained #1 for 8 weeks in a row on the Texas Music Charts. A wide variety of Ty's music is currently played frequently on the GARTH Sirius channel and is rewarded with rave reviews by the Garth Fans.

Ty recently took some time off to "just be a daddy" as he put it. "There are facets of everyone's life that only allow you one chance to get things just right! My children were just that for me. But there's a point when your kids quit looking around to make sure you're there all the time."

So, Saddle up for the ride of your life. Ty's new "Saddle Up Tour" is tooled up and rockin' the country.

"In my life I have been blessed to play a role in some amazing things, traveled about everywhere you can imagine and met thousands of extraordinary people; all in the name of Country Music.

Every time I see a toe tap, hands clap or hear a voice echoing my music, I'm reminded of just how thankful I am that I'm still here having the time of my life and "Still Living My Dream".

The Real Deal

Ty's debut self-titled album was produced by Garth Fundis on RCA records. This album was honored with rave reviews and generated several singles including the top three hit "Should've Asked Her Faster". For the second time in his life, someone with the name Garth played a significant role in fulfilling his musical aspirations. Songs include: Redneck Son, Smoke In Her Eyes, Should've Asked Her Faster, Her Only Bad Habit, You'll Find Somebody New, A Swing Like That, New Faces In The Fields, The Blues Ain't News To Me, It's Lonesome Everywhere and Is That You.

The second album in the RCA series titled "Two Ways to Fall" was produced by James Stroud and Byron Gallimore. This was a more edgy gathering of down to earth country favorites. "There were songs on this record that really spoke to me and my upbringing. I love that my fans tend to hear the same messages and are drawn to similar stories." Charted singles including Irresistible You and All of The Above. Songs include: It Starts With L, Two Ways To Fall, I'll Take Today, Never Say Never, The Last Dance, Kick Back, Irresistible You, Backslider's Prayer, All Of The Above, and Sure.

A leap to Capitol records gave Ty the opportunity to craft music with his old friend Garth Brooks once again. "This is the most fun I've ever had making music" says Ty. "I had the pleasure to rejoin my old friend and actually make old dreams into a reality." Garth and Ty spent more than a year developing a list of true classic country favorites that would make George Strait proud. Singles included "I'd Rather Have Nothin'" and "I Drove Her To Dallas". Songs include: My Baby No Esta Aqui No More, She's Gonna Miss Me When He's Gone, She Don't Care About Me, I Drove Her To Dallas, Blame It On Mexico, Forever, Too Many Highways, Collect From Wichita, I'd Rather Have Nothing, I Knew I Loved You, Traveling Soldier and a bonus track duet with Steve Wariner of Should've Asked Her Faster.

Years of traveling and hundreds of performances later, Ty realized that his children would only be small once. This mostly self-penned album was crafted in his home office between (and sometimes during) baseball and football games and other various school activities. "I really let the Oklahoma in me hang out on this one" says Ty. "I had a blast writing with my buddies and I'm really proud of how it all worked out in the mix." Ty learned a lot to as this album released on his own label called Triple T Records. Charted singles included Redneck Anthem, Texans Hold'em (8 weeks at #1) and The Perfect Girl. Songs include: Love Is Stronger, Perfect Girl, Texans Hold'em, Club Paradise, Nothing But Love, Redneck Anthem, Stick To Your Guns, The NRA Song, It Must Be Colorado and Living The Dream.

"Ty is the true definition of a 'Star'. With a voice as smooth as melted butter, Ty leaves his audience wishing the music would keep playing and the night would never end."

Dena Luthi, Entertainment Mngr.,
Lincoln County Fair, Afton, WY

"Ty and his group put on an outstanding concert. His style and mannerism captured the audience in a very special way."

Diane Wurdeman, Mngr.,
Scotts Bluff County Fair, Mitchell, NE

"Working with Ty was an amazing experience. The entire organization was so willing to help us make it the best show possible. Even when the weather caused a last minute venue change, they made it work perfectly. The public LOVED TY! The comments are still rolling in about how personable and kind he was both during and after the show. We would love to have him back again."

Anna Thayn, Mngr.,
San Juan County Fair, Monticello, UT

"This isn't just about the music, it's about entertainment. You remain engaged throughout the concert and before you know it, the concert's over. Ty endears himself to the audience with his music, sincerity and sense of humor."

Kathy Lynch, General Mngr.,
Boulder County Fair, Boulder, CO

"Ty and his crew are the most professional group that I've worked with in a long time. They will literally 'turn the audience on' and give them a show they will never forget."

Doug Shane, Director of Marketing,
Cripple Creek, CO
